

VOCABULARY

1. Complete sentences with correct forms of words given below.ADDICT

- Some people claim that jogging can be highly addictive.
- He admitted he was addicted to cigarettes.
- There is a growing problem of an addiction to drugs in our cities.

OBSESS

- Food has become an obsession for many people.
- She had an obsessive interest in him and his life.
- I believe that she was obsessed with her work.

HARM

- Looking at a computer monitor for a long time can be harmful to the eyes.
- We need to use natural resources without harming the environment.
- Anyone who has ever met him will tell you he is completely harmless.

BORE

- They started quarrelling out of sheer boredom.
- I can't continue listening to this boring speech.
- I'm really bored with his endless complaining.

2. Discuss:

- What are you addicted to? Have you tried to quit it?
- What are kids and teens obsessed with nowadays?
- What are modern addictions?
- To what extent do you think you are addicted to your smartphone?

VIDEO

3. Watch the video and answer the questions.

- In what occasions do people use their cell phones? before and after sleep; during church service; in the middle of an intimate moment with a partner
- What consequences does the use of smartphones have? creates a dysfunctional relationship; not paying attention = communication breakdown; disrupted sleep; people feel agitated and moody, cell phones keep people awake
- What does the digital detox involve? one hour with the entire family of turning off the cell phones – to five hours on the weekend
- What are the benefits of the digital detox? sleep better, less stressed, enjoy a day, the nature, the surroundings and people
- Could you do such a detox?
- Should we be concerned about the issue?

4. Look at the activities below and tell how often you do them with your phone?

multiple times a day

multiple times a week

at least weekly

- making calls
- texting
- sending and reading emails
- searching for information
- taking pictures
- checking the weather
- researching products and services
- searching for a store
- sharing and posting photos
- using maps
- using social media sites

GRAMMAR

5. There are a few expressions in English to talk about preferences. See the example sentences below and complete the grammar structure forms:

- I prefer to do some sport rather than watch TV all day long.
- We prefer chatting with people online to calling them.
- She would rather call somebody than text.
- They prefer coffee to tea.
- I would prefer to finish work at 3 p.m. on Fridays.

- would rather + do + than + do
- would prefer + to do
- prefer + noun + to + noun
- prefer + doing sth + to + doing sth
- prefer + to do sth + rather than + do sth

The smartphone problem

6. Work in pairs and discuss what you would choose in the situations below and give reasons. Use the expressions from exercise 5 (would rather/would prefer/prefer).

- meet online vs meet in real life
- call vs text
- smartphone vs laptop
- lose a wallet vs lose a phone
- shop online on your mobile vs on a computer
- stop watching TV vs stop watching YouTube
- iPhone vs Android phone
- give up the phone vs lose some friends

EXTRA TASK:

After ex. 4, give your students this graph so that they can compare their answers with research results from Canada (2013).

Source: <https://insightswest.com/news/your-insights-on-smartphones-many-british-columbians-are-addicted/>

